

II. Contractual Guidelines

Universities must seek the approval of University Counsel for certain contracts or agreements so that legal risks may be effectively addressed. If a contract or agreement is non-routine in nature, or could have major financial or other implications, University Counsel must review the document. Individuals shall sign these contracts or agreements only after receiving approval by University Counsel.