US:IT CIO Open Forum
February 28, 2018
2:30 - 4 p.m.

Summary

Task Force Updates

- Core Services
  David gave a brief update of the task force status and activities to date. Assessments and service owner interviews performed to help classify identified services into the following categories: Core/Essential, System-wide, Niche, Other or Remove. “Number of Service Offerings CLASSIFIED?” A live poll of Forum attendees correctly identified 221 services as classified out of the 318 service offerings originally offered. Services were labeled as either internal or external and the team(s) providing the services identified. Additional work will be done to help find missing services. Data will continue to be refined and a cost allocation model will be developed. Niche services will also receive further evaluation.

- Website Features
  David gave a brief update of the task force status and activities to date. Interviews of IT Ops Managers, the Help Desk Manager and Help Desk Staff/Work Study Students were conducted by task force members to discover common ticket requests and identify useful tools/services/information. Next steps will be to use the results to develop a list of useful tools, services and metrics to include on the website.

- Remote Desktop Analysis & Recommendations (Introduction and Status Report)
  David explained the purpose and charge of this new task force. He updated on the activities of the group to date and shared the possible solutions that are under evaluation. Recommendation expected at next Forum.

- Mission, Vision & Values
  Karen gave an updated on the groups’ activities. SWOT and Gap Analysis information collected and used to identify elements and characteristics that helped shape Mission, Vision and Values. A draft mission statement, vision statement and the recommended core values were shared and next steps announced. “Which Core Value Do You Feel Strongest About?” A live poll of Forum attendees identified INTEGRITY as the winner with 41% of the vote.

Website (www.maine.edu) Accessibility
David provided an update regarding a notice of complaint received from the Department of Education Office of Civil Rights alleging non-accessibility for some pages on maine.edu. He explained what a possible investigation would look like and shared some options for resolution. This initial complaint was directly solely at maine.edu, however other complaints would not be unexpected for other UMS campus websites in the future. Expectations and deliverables of the voluntary resolution agreement entered into were shared with the group and next steps reviewed.

- MaineStreet is not included in the complaint.
- None of the issues in the complaint are insurmountable. The biggest challenge will be the pdf docs that are uploaded to the site. Scanned images are not easily made accessible.

Strategic Planning Sessions
David introduced the process and shared desired outcomes. Mini planning retreats are being planned and a tentative schedule was shared. All US:IT staff are encouraged to attend one of the planning sessions and may attend any session that is convenient. Register by visiting https://goo.gl/forms/QNGpFzRXNazZ0tpu1. “Which aspect of Strategic Planning are you most looking forward to?” A live poll of Forum attendees identified CRAFTING THE VISION AND FUTURE FOR US:IT as the winner with 53% of the vote. Strategic Planning will also be a part of this year’s US:IT Summit.
